Blood Relations (Blue-eyed Son) Chris Lynch
That's the lesson Mick's been taught by his older brother Terry, and he's about to learn the hard way exactly what it means. Because where Mick comes from your circle is more than your family or friends - its the line you draw to say who's in and who's out. And now Mick s the one who's crossed the line. A few steps beyond his narrow-minded neighbourhood, he's found people he thinks he might be able to trust - crazy Toy and the beautiful Evelyn - and the possibility of a life, and a self, he can respect. Change can be good. Only trouble is, leaving home has left Mick nowhere to hide. And his old life - and Terry - aren't quite ready to let him go ...
