Master Detective: The Life and Crimes of Ellis Parker, America's Real-life Sherlock Holmes (Updated and expanded) John Reisinger
Ellis Parker was a detective so successful he was called the American Sherlock Holmes. For over 30 years he solved the most difficult and complex cases all over New Jersey and beyond. When EllisParker got involved in a case, people took notice. So when he conducted his own investigation of the Lindbergh kidnapping and obtained a detailed signed confession, the New Jersey authorities were stunned, especially since they had just tried and convicted someone else! Master Detective tells the whole incredible story in detail for the first time. (This is a revised and updated edition containing new information.)
