The Bloody Bozeman Trail Max Savage
Clay Weston was a peace-loving young man, trying to live by the Bible admonition to "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," so he didn't even know how he got mixed up in this range war, but here he was, pinned down and facing death. He knew God worked in mysterious ways, but the last thing he would have expected was for a mountain man to show up on the plains of Wyoming, just in time to save his life! It was hard for Clay to imagine how the soldiers had treated Indians so harshly - until he found the butchered remains of that special little lady who had won his heart. His quest for revenge would pour more blood on the old Bloody Bozeman Trail. Perhaps it would be his blood this time!
