Come Along and See: What Some Young Men Did in '48, '49, '50, '51, '52 Dan Rasmussen
Life was pretty uneventful for 18 year old Dan Rasmussen, Jr. in 1940's Nebraska. Little did he know a phone call from California would soon change his life forever, starting him on a journey that would lead him from the peaceful Midwest to wartime Korea and back again. More than a by-the-numbers battle narrative, "Come Along and See" is the highly personal story of one young man's life in those times. At once a classic adventure, a war memoir and a coming-of-age tale, this true accounts offers an unblinking look at life in post-World War II America.
