Enemy of the Saints: The Rise of Antichrist Woodrow Polston
Who is he that was spoken of old, destined to be the final ruler before the return of Christ? What will the world look like under his reign? Is it possible that he is alive today, walking among us unknown until he receives his power and authority? In Enemy of the Saints, Woodrow Polston reveals key characteristics of the man who will become the Antichrist, as well as those who will follow him. Enemy of the Saints exposes the rise of Christian persecution and the increased division within the church. The rapid decline of moral values and much evidence that proves just how late the hour is in which we live. Enemy of the Saints will empower you to walk in bold faith, despite the opposition that lies ahead. With prophetic insight regarding the enemy, you will be better equipped to discern who he is and the motives of those who will blindly follow him.
