One of the great English poets and painters of the Romantic period, William Blake (1757–1827) produced works that are among the most mystical, powerful, and expressive in the history of art. For this unique tattoo collection, Marty Noble has adapted details from four of the artist's finest illustrations, including The Ancient of Days, Job's Sons and Daughters Destroyed, and two images from Blake's Book of Urizen. Admirers of Blake and devotees of fine art will take special pleasure in displaying these unusual examples of body art. Original Dover (2002) publication.
