This is simple, grandparents and grandchildren of all ages can communicate back and forth through the cards provided in this letter book. With each card sent, you will feel loved, grow closer, and begin building a treasured keepsake together. Look to each page for instructions, and then decide if you want to follow them or make up your own. Use this letter book with one grandchild or several. There are also some blank cards included in case you need more room to write or if you are sharing this with more than one grandchild/grandparent. Add your own photos, ideas and creativity. The cards, once completed, can be tucked back into the nooks and crannies of the book creating the most special history book your family will ever read.
