Sarmiento Sisters 2: A Fonder Heart (Volume 2) Jayla Hawkins
This very moment was everything Roxanna had dreamed. For a few seconds, she stared at the door her father had just exited before walking toward the mirror. She closed her eyes and took a couple of deep breaths. A slight clunk caught her attention, and she glanced over her shoulder. No longer hearing anything, or seeing anyone, she turned forward and her head tilted up, her eyes closing once more. “Today is the day that I..." her voice was cut off by a gasp mixed with a choked scream escaping her throat. She felt two large and rough hands enclose around her neck. Her panicked hazel and gold eyes shot to the mirror in front of her, and she froze in horror and shock. A black mask covered most of the person's face except for two roughly cut holes around the eyes. Bright blue eyes were the last thing she saw before black dots started covering her vision. It’s happening again. Someone from Roxanna’s past is back to ruin her, but will Nick be able to save her? Or will she be strong enough to break away from bondage and find her way back to everything she loves?
