I Was Never Supposed to Love You 2 (Volume 2) BriAnn Danae
The once compromising position Erica placed herself in before, had only gotten more complicated. With her and Meechi both too stuck in their ways to let their love prevail over the people wanting to see them fail, the two just can't seem to grasp the meaning of communication. Being the key ingredient of any relationship, it was what was missing from their union. With her past still haunting her, Erica is forced to make the hardest decision of her life before she ruins everything she and Meechi fought for. Willing and ready to give his entire heart up for her, Meechi just doesn’t see things going as planned like he thought they would. After answering Erica’s phone with her ex from jail on the other line, he is second guessing their relationship. What he believed was built off of honesty and love, is now a figment of his imagination. The losses he had endured from dealing with the enemy alone, just wasn’t enough. David had to come back in their lives and make his presence known. There would be no happy ending if it was up to him, but Meechi hoped otherwise. With guilt high in the air, what ifs are lodged in the back of everyone’s mind as they struggle to grasp the outcome of their decisions. In the second installment of I Was Never Supposed to Love You, BriAnn guarantees to leave the readers begging for more. The love between the couple is so deep, it’s almost unbearable to be without. But is love enough to keep them together?
