Minneapolis & St. Paul: A Photographic Portrait James Kruger, Claire Deberg
Enjoy the engaging history and culture of Minneapolis and Saint Paul through beautifully captured images of the monuments, artwork, museums, historic homes, gardens, and lakes that make visiting the Twin Cities an unforgettable experience. With several national sports teams, a rich history of nationally recognized city parks, and amazing destinations for art, theatre, music and architecture, Saint Paul and Minneapolis are a treasure trove of delights. Built around the power and majesty of the Mississippi River, it is on the river where the capitol city has a commanding view and where Minneapolis earned its fame for harnessing the power of the only waterfalls on the entirety of the Mississippi to create the once world-famous flour mills. Indulge in this visual journey of James Kruger's elegant images of the Twin Cities, and then make your plans to visit them.
