Soul Touched: A Neo Poet's Rendition Michael James
"I wish my spirit to be as the wind catchers, soaring, boundless, and free." Soul Touched is a contemporary collection of insightful poetry and short stories that capture the human experience as well as the healing power of nature. This book explores how humanity is still intertwined with nature and with other people, despite the alienation of modern culture. The collection examines the ways in which life can be experienced as an exultation of joy, yet recognizes its struggles. With natural, accessible, heartfelt language and images, the reader is given a glimpse of deep and resonant issues in a mirror that gently softens a profound message. Open this book to discover the possibility of transcendence, and the potential for healing that dwells in everyday life.
