The Restoration and the Gifts of the Spirit David E Jones
Restoration, what does it mean and is it necessary? When we understand that over time thoughts, ideas, and perceptions change it will reveal a need to search out how something was originally viewed. I feel this is especially true when we approach Scripture. We change, Scripture does not. The question that should be asked is "which direction are we going in?" In many ways, we cannot go forward until we establish a solid starting point. The further we get away from the starting point, the more the need is to return to the beginning. It is with this thought that this work was written. Many have removed themselves from the gifts of the Ruach (Spirit) because of misconceptions, or actions that may be viewed as unscrupulous or unscriptural. This book will show you how the Ruach (Spirit) moved throughout the entirety of Scripture following into how this affects our lives today.
