In the Heart of Another: Immigrant Women Tell Their Stories Susan Philips
This is the story of 8 women immigrants (Mexico, China, Armenia, Vietnam, El Salvador) in their own words. They share personal trials and challenges--their struggle to learn the language, adapt to the culture, find jobs and raise their children. They talk frankly about why they had to leave their countries and how they have coped in this, their new country. They want you to know that they are more than many people realize--they have hearts and they have stories.
