Excerpt From SWEET ESCAPE:
"Oh yes, I'm yours. Always yours. Always. You're mine! You're mine!" We babbled together, almost incoherent in our love and lust.
The wind billowed the lacy curtains in the window and the cool air rushed over my skin, tautening my nipples. Sebastian idly reached over and brushed one, his smile warm, lazy and utterly satisfied. His arms were wrapped loosely around me, his leg thrown over mine, a mute testament to his claim over me.
"I love you, Meaghan," he mouthed to me, obviously as hesitant to break the now quiet calm of the room as I was. I mouthed the same back to him and snuggled in his safe, comfortable, familiar embrace.

The filing cabinet was filled to overflowing with files and papers, the mess in there proof of the inadequacy of the previous owner. I groaned as I realized just how hard it was going to be to find any evidence of what Sebastian and I were after. It was going to take forever. I just hope Sebastian realized the amount of after hours work that I was going to be punching in order to deal with this. His jealousy over Daniel was uncontrollable, and I knew that we were probably in for a rough ride in that department. My eyes settled on one file and I idly pulled it from the drawer, the title, Marketing Installments, piquing my curiosity. The phone ringing pulled my thoughts back to my paying job again.
"Walters Marketing, Meaghan speaking."
"Hi ya babe. Mmm, your voice is just the thing I needed to hear right now." I smiled at the heat in Sebastian's voice, my mind going back over the previous night's escapades in the dining room and then later, again, in the shower. He was insatiable.
"Oh is it? I figured you'd be dead to the world today, lying on the bed sleeping all day, just waiting till I come home to keep me up all damn night again." I opened the file and began flipping through the pages, skimming, hoping for something to catch my eye.
He giggled wickedly, "Well that was my plan, but Allison called. She wants us to come in to the office this afternoon. Will you be able to get away?"
"Oh man, I don't know. I have an appointment at two with the Payroll clerk and then another one at three with the ad exec. I have to be brought up to speed on everything before I can start making any decisions here."
Suddenly, Golden & Golden seemed to be everywhere on the page in front of me. Small installments of mere thousands littered the page.
"Oh god Sebastian!! I think I've found something!"
